

The "UNIVERSITARIA SIMPRO" symposium of the University of Petrosani has as main goal bringing together famous researchers from academia and industry, so that participants have the opportunity to know more about research activities on national and international level. It will be an open dialogue and a direct exchange of ideas regarding the research challenges.

We kindly invite you to the 6th edition of "UNIVERSITARIA SIMPRO 2014" which will be held in Petrosani. In the year 1948 the Institute of Mines from Petrosani was founded as the mining university situated in an important mining region.

The official opening will take place on 2014, October the 10th, at 10.00 a.m., in the Aula of the University, with plenary presentations regarding your results from research and cooperation. The symposium will end on 2014, October the 11th, after a trip to cultural and historical places.
